“I will comfort you.”

The readings this week challenge us to reflect both on the ways we might be blind, and on the gift of new vision that is freely offered.

In the First Reading, the prophet Jeremiah (31: 7–9) speaks of a God who gathers his people to heal them.

The Psalm (126) sings of these and other wonderful works: ‘The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy’.

The author of the letter to the Hebrews (Second Reading Hebrews 5: 1–6) shows that the high priest is one called by God to deal gently with the people, because he himself knows weakness.

And in the Gospel (Mark 10: 46–52), Jesus calls Bartimaeus, a blind beggar of Jericho, to him into discipleship. Though blind, Bartimaeus already has insight into who Jesus is and, when he hears him pass by, shouts in desperation even when told to be quiet. For Bartimaeus, Jesus is now ‘Master’, and his relationship with him brings healing and new life.

Let’s pray, this week, that we might recognise the great things the Lord works for us, and that our hope lies in God, who calls to us through our weaknesses and limitations.

Our Lady’s Message – 25th September 2021

“Dear children! Pray, witness and rejoice with me, because the Most High sends me again to guide you on the way to holiness. Be aware, children, that your life is short and eternity awaits you, so that with all the saints you glorify God with your being. Do not worry, little children, for earthly things, but yearn for heaven. Heaven will be your goal and joy will reign in your heart. I am with you and I bless you all with my maternal blessing. Thank you for having responded to my call”.

A prayer for the COP26 climate talks:

Loving God,

We praise your name with all you have created.

You are present in the whole universe,

And in the smallest creatures.

We acknowledge the responsibilities you have placed upon us as stewards of your creation.

May the Holy Spirit inspire all political leaders at COP26 as they seek to embrace the changes needed to foster a more sustainable society.

Instil in them the courage and gentleness to implement fairer solutions for the poorest and most vulnerable, and commit their nations to the care of Our Common Home.

We ask this through Our Lord Jesus Christ your Son. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen."

Prayer to Our Lady – The Memorare Prayer

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.
