Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time Year A – Page 53 16th July 2023

The word of God is proclaimed throughout the whole of creation. The readings in the liturgy this Sunday are filled with images drawn from nature.

The word is like rain refreshing the earth, bringing goodness and growth wherever it falls. (First Reading Isaiah 55: 10–11) The Psalm is a prayerful song of thanks after a time of drought. It reminds us of the bountiful love that pours out from the Lord, filling us with joy and good things.

Paul (Second Reading Romans 8: 18–23) writes of a deep longing within us – and within the whole of creation – for the fulfilment of God's promise. The word of God will give us the freedom we long for. Jesus shares the parable of the Sower casting seeds upon the land to teach us to cherish the word of God. (Gospel Matthew 13: 1–23) The parable reminds us of the many things that can distract and prevent us from fulfilling all that we are called to be.

When we learn to truly listen, the word of God is an abundant source of growth. It provides rich fruit for the benefit of all. In this coming week, we might want to look around us and notice the different ways in which creation speaks to us of the love of God.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen."

A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

God of peace,
Whose son Jesus Christ taught us
To love our neighbour as ourselves,
Give your strength to the people of Ukraine,
Give your wisdom to the leaders of the world,
Give your love to all of us who pray for peace –
Peace that will transform,
Peace that will heal,
Peace that will last,
For the sake of the same Jesus Christ,
The Prince of Peace, Amen
